Dear Chapter Chairs,

I wanted to give you one final update on the inaugural Chapter Pro Bono Champions Program. 25 chapters participated awarding 35 individual AILA member and organizational Champions. Great work! Attached is the final awardee list from which I will do the drawing for the 2016 annual conference registration. Please notify me immediately if you see any incorrect information.

If you haven't already, don't forget to order your plaques, I have pasted the instructions below again for your reference.

Finally, thanks to those of you who have provided additional written information about your awardees. I will be reaching out to some of you directly if I have not yet received this information as we are preparing write-ups for AILA.org on every awardee. We looked forward to celebrating these 2016 Chapter Pro Bono Champions both online and in person at the annual conference in Las Vegas!

Have a wonderful weekend in DC!

Plaque ordering instructions:

As far as next steps, I spoke yesterday to our account representative at Baudeville, Jeff Marcusse. Jeff will handle all of your orders directly. His full contact information is below and you can reach him by email or phone. You will need to pay via credit card and the cost will be $69.95 per trophy ordered plus shipping.

Also attached to this message is the standard proof for the award. After placing the order with Jeff, Baudeville will send you your individuals proofs for approval. After the proof is approved and the award goes into production, you should receive it in approximately 10 business days for presentation to your award recipients.
